GEIGER'S TICKING

THE FALL OF THE NUCLEAR POWERPLANT

You´re a scientist working on a nuclear powerplant. There's rumors of a new technology being tested on the main reactor. Some say this new technology is top-secret.
A problem happens during one of the tests. The alarms are howling, and so is your breath.
You've managed to hide in a saferoom but no one has come looking for you...
You're alone... Or are you?
